Final assignment on computer graphics:

1. Write a graphics program so that a circle moves from left to right on the console and a rectangle moves from right to left. Whenever the meet each other (meeting means they can overlap each other), the circle will move back from the meeting place to the left side and the rectangle will move to the right on the console from the meeting place. (20 points)
2. Write a graphics program to draw the flag of Bangladesh.   (10 points)
3. Write a graphics program to draw a triangle and fill it with white color. (10 points)